

THE EMANCIPATION OF LALA

AN AMERICAN SIDDHARTHA

A STAR CALLED LOVE
THE FREEDOM STORIES OF LALA

An Exhilarating, Transformational, Liberating Adventure!

May 20, 21, 28*, Pacific Cultural Center, 1307 Seabright Ave, Santa Cruz

*8pm evening show only

Visionary, powerful, eighteen year old Lala crashes into tragedy and emerges on a great spiritual adventure seeking freedom and love through the ghost towns, trains, brothels, and prisons of the 1898 American West.

"I'm permanently changed. I feel liberated, cleansed, purified." R.J.
"I feel washed by deep wisdom, touched at the places that want to be touched." R.G.
"Captivating. Entertaining and deeply moving. I thought about this play for over a week." F.H.

Fridays 8pm
Saturdays 8pm
Sat Matinee 2pm

And Don't Miss:
The Imagine-a-nation of Lalachild May 6, 7, 27
The Education of Lala Girl May 13, 14, 28*

*8pm show

Admission $15, $12 Senior/Student/Advance
$36 All Three "Star Called Love" Plays (Any Days, Any Order)

Available @ BrownPaperTickets.com

